EBay # 105701189^g has apparently about 14 weights and I would like to know the amounts stamped on each weight. I also would like you to clear up whether it is grams or grains on the smaller ones. I presume there is no hinge and that the top fits over and is separate from the bottom. The small weight container inside the box never had a hinged top I believe. Would you be nice enough to clear up these matters for me? I would very much appreciate your prompt cooperation. Eric P. Newman, St. Louis, MO

The hinge on the box is there but has come undone from the back of the box.

There are 16 weights

2 round ones - 1/2 ounce each

7 DWTS 1/2, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6

7 GRAINS 1/2, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

It does not look like the inside box had a cover and there are no marks for a hinge inside. Thanks for the interest.

EBay 1057011899 which is open for bidding for a few more days is of some interest to me. The owner misdescribed parts of it and has Emailed me correct answers to my questions. Please put it on your watch list and let us talk about it at your convenience. Thank you for calling it to my attention OPE

I have attached a photo - the hinge is there but it does not bend. It is stuck in that stright position. Thanks Barb M
